How to Market Livestock

At such a time as this, when certain sections of the Province are short of feed and when a considerable amount of our livestock has to find a market, it is wise for us to see that we are getting all our stock will bring.

Instances have come to the United Grain Growers' Livestock Branch where discouraging and panicky information has been scattered widely in certain districts. The purpose seemed to be to get the farmer in a panic so that he would sell his live stock for a ridiculously low figure. For instance, farmers have informed us that the current report in their district was to the effect that the Calgary Livestock market had gone all to pieces, and that farmers could not even get their freight out of cars of stock shipped to that point.

These malicious statements are absolutely false, for the Calgary market up to date (August 5th) has absorbed everything sent to it at prices that are, to say the least, fair. This is particularly true of all grades of good stocker cattle. There are, of course, the light boned, poor quality, and off color stuff that are poor sellers, and these frequently find their way to the canner classes, but all animals showing good bone, breeding, and of good stocker quality, have up to date, found ready sale. The prices for stockers have been about as follows: Yearlings, $25 to $40; two-year olds, $40 to $60; and three-year olds, $60 and up to $75.

The government and railroad arrangement to permit each man to ship free of charge two cars of cattle to feed, or seven cars of feed to the cattle will help to steady conditions. But we would strongly advise farmers before sacrificing their stock at ridiculously low figures to call up the United Grain Growers Livestock office at Calgary, or some other reputable commission firm, for market reports before they are stampeded into a very foolish sacrifice of their stock.

Let us, however, impress upon all those living inside the mange area that they secure a certificate from a Dominion Government Veterinarian or from a range rider that their stock is free from mange, and that it has not come in contact with mangey cattle. Cattle accompanied by a certificate of this kind can be sold to better advantage in the Calgary yards. If shippers fail to secure this certificate, it may mean that their cattle may be held in the yards for two dips, ten days apart. It is imperative that all shippers from within the mange area remember this fact, and send the clean bill of health in with the bill of lading. This of course applies to stocker cattle and not to butcher stuff sent in for immediate slaughter.

It is a simple matter to get the certificate and send same with the cattle, then if it turns out that some of the animals are not quite good was the first American to achieve his ambition of becoming a millionaire at making shoes. He knew shoes from the age of 7 when he was "bound out." His apprenticeship over he went to work for 35 cents a day. Strenuous application to his life's purpose, coupled with an inborn sense of thrift and economy brought success to Douglas. enough for slaughter, they can be disposed of more easily for stocker purposes. Farmers should also see that all co-operative shipments of cattle are clearly "hair clipped" or marked for ownership. That is, have all the cattle belonging to one owner hair clipped on the right hip with a Roman numeral. Cattle thus marked are easily identified in the yards.

G.W.V.A. Local for Didsbury.

A meeting of returned men was held in the Oddfellows Hall, on Friday evening, August 22nd, to discuss the desirability of forming a branch of the Great War Veterans Association for Didsbury.

Major C. W. McInnes, Provincial Secretary, as soon as he was made aware of the desires of the returned men of this district, notified them that Comrade A. E. Hume, Prov. Organizer, would be present to help and advise in the forming of a local for this town.

At 8 p.m., twenty members had entered their names on the roll and the meeting being called to order Comrade Hume was appointed temporary chairman. A little talk on the advisability of forming a local and the aim and object of the association as a whole took up a little time and then followed the nominations of officers:

For the office of President, Comrade Reid by Comrade Paul; Comrade Weber by Comrade Stitt; Comrade Reid was elected on show of hands. 1st Vice-President—Comrade Weber by Comrade Stitt, Comrade Frost by Comrade Weber; Comrade Weber was elected. 2nd Vice-President—Comrade Frost (acclamation). Executive Committee—Comrade Tarn by Comrade Cochrane, Comrade Wood by Comrade Stitt, Comrade Kaufman by Comrade Tarn; Comrade Stitt by Comrade Woods; on ballot being taken Comrades Tarn, Kaufman and Stitt were elected.

Comrade Paul was elected permanent Secretary-Treasurer by acclamation.

Moved by Comrade Kaufman and seconded by Comrade Stitt "That this branch be called 'The Didsbury Branch of the G.W.V.A.'—Carried.

Moved by Comrade Tarn and seconded by Comrade Frost "That initiation fee be $2.00 and annual dues $5.00 per year, payable quarterly in advance.—Carried."

Moved by Comrade Weber and seconded by Comrade Kaufman "That regular meetings be held on first Monday of each month at 8 p.m.—Carried.

Meeting adjourned.

A crowning curative triumph in medicine is now given to the world, and all who have been sufferers from stomach ailments, indigestion and headache can be cured by a purely vegetable remedy.

Calomel, salts and such like are no longer necessary. They are harsh and disagreeable. Science has devised something far superior, and you can go today with 25c to any druggist and buy a box of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are considered the very quickest and safest cure for the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys.

Half sick men and women who scarcely know what ails them, will be given a new lease of life, with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Depressed spirits disappear, headaches are forgotten, appetite increases, blood is purified and enriched, pains at the base of the spine are cured, the nerves are toned up, ambition to work is increased, and day by day the old-time health and vigor return.

A trial only is necessary to prove how beneficial Dr. Hamilton's Pills are to all who are weak, nervous, thin, depressed or in failing health.

Dave watched. Saw the black card go down at one corner of the board; saw a bystander fumbling for a five dollar bill; saw the bill laid on the card; saw it turned up—and it was red.

"That is smooth," he said. "I'd 'a' sworn that was the black card."

"So it was—when you saw it," his companion explained. "But you were just like the sucker that played him. You couldn't help glancing at the jay getting out his money, and it was in that instant the trick was done. He's too quick for the eye, but that's how he does it."

Dave became interested. He saw two or three others lose fivers and tens. Then his companion pinched his arm. "Watch that new guy," he whispered. "Watch him. He's wise."

A new player had approached. He stood near the table for some minutes, apparently looking on casually; then his left fist came down on one of the cards. "A hundred on this one," he said, and began thumbing out a roll with his other hand.

"You ain't playin'," said the dealer. "You ain't in on this."

"Ain't I? What do you say, fellows?" turning to the crowd. "Am I in or not?"

"Sure, you're in," they exclaimed. "Sure you're in," repeated a big fellow, lounging forward. "If this guy ain't in we clean you out, see?"

"It's on me," said the dealer, with an ugly smile. "Well, if I must pay, I pay. Turn 'er up."

It was black. The dealer paid out a hundred dollars to the new player, who quickly disappeared in the crowd.

Dave had made his decision. It was plain his companion's tip was straight. There was just one way to beat this game, but it was simple enough when you knew how. He sidled close to the table, making great pretense of indifference, but watching the cards closely with his keen black eyes. The dealer showed his hand, made a few quick passes, and the black card flew out to the right. This was Dave's chance. He pounced on it with his left hand, while his other plunged into his pocket.

"Sixty dollars on this one," he cried, and there was the triumphant note in his voice of the man who knows he has beaten the other at his own game.

"You ain't playin'," said the dealer. "You ain't in on this."

"That don't go," said Dave, very quietly. "You're playin' a public game here, an' I choose to play with you, this once. Sixty dollars on this card." He was fumbling his money on the table.

"You ain't playin'," repeated the dealer. "You're a butt-in. You ain't in this game at all."

"Sure he's in," said the crowd.

"Sure he's in," repeated the big fellow who had interfered before. "He's a stranger here, but you play with him or you don't play no more in this joint, see?"

"That's hittin' me twice in the same spot, an' bittin' me hard," whined the dealer, "but you got it on me. Turn 'er up."

The card was red.

Dave looked at it stupidly. It was a moment or two before he realized that his money was gone. Then, regardless of those about, he rushed through the crowd, flinging bystanders right and left, and plunged into the night.

He walked down a street until it lost itself on the prairie; then he followed a prairie trail far into the country. The air was cold and a few drops of rain were flying in it, but he was unconscious of the weather. He was in a rage through and through. More than once his hand went to his revolver, and he half turned on his heel to retrace his steps, but his better judgment led him on to fight it out with himself. Slop-eye was now a dream, a memory, gone—gone. Everything was gone; only his revolver and a few cents remained. He gripped the revolver again. With that he was supreme. No man in all that town of men, schooled in the ways of the West, was more than his equal while that grip lay in his palm. At the point of that muzzle he could demand his money back—and get it.

Then he laughed. Hollow and empty it sounded in the night air, but it was a laugh, and it saved his spirit. "Why, you fool," he chuckled. "You came to town for to learn somethin', didn't you? Well, you're learnin'. Sixty dollars a throw. Education comes high, don't it? But you shouldn't kick. He didn't coax you in, an' gave you every chance to back away. You butted in and got stung. Perhaps you've learned somethin' worth sixty dollars."

With these more philosophical thoughts he turned toward again, and as he tramped along his light-heartedness reasserted itself. His sense of fairness made him feel that he had no grievance against the card sharper, and in his innocence of the ways of the game it never occurred to him that the friendly stranger who had showed him how to play it, and the big fellow who insisted on his being "in," and the other player who had won a hundred dollars a few minutes before, were all partners with the sharper and probably at this moment were dividing his sixty dollars—the price of old Slop-eye—between them.

Early next morning he was awake and astir. The recollection of his loss sent a sudden pang through his morning spirits, but he tried to close his mind to it. "No use worryin' over that," he said, jingling the few coins that now represented his wealth. "That's over and gone. I traded sixty dollars for my first lesson. Maybe it was a bad trade, but anyway, I ain't goin' to squeal." He turned that thought over in his mind.

It suddenly occurred to him that it expressed a principle which he might very well weave into his new life. "If I can just get that idea, an' live up to it," he said, "never to squeal, no matter what hits me, now how, I guess it's worth sixty dollars." He whistled as he finished dressing, ate his breakfast cheerfully, and set out in search of employment.

CHAPTER FIVE

Almost the first person he met was the stranger who had schooled him in the gambling game the night before. He greeted Dave cordially; his voice had a soft, sedulous, almost feminine quality which Dave had not noticed in their whispered conversation in the pool room. There was something attractive about his personality; something which invited friendship and even confidence, and yet beneath these emotions Dave felt a sense of distrust, as though part of his nature rebelled against the acquaintanceship.

"That was the rottenest luck you had last night," the stranger was saying. "I never saw the heat of it. I knew you were wrong the moment you had your hand down, but I couldn't butt in then. I was hoping you'd stay and raise him next time; you might have got your money back that way."

"Oh, I don't mind the money," said Dave, cheerfully. "I don't want it back. In fact, I figure it was pretty well spent."

"Lots more where it came from, eh?" laughed the other. "You're from the ranches, I see, and I suppose the price of a steer or two doesn't worry you a hair's worth."

"From is right," Dave replied. "I'm from them, an' I'm not goin' back. As for money—well, I spent my last nickel for breakfast, so I've got to line up a job before noon."

The stranger extended his hand. "Shake," he said. "I like you. You're no squealer, anyway. My name is Conward. Yours?"

Dave told his name, and shook hands. Conward offered his cigarette box, and the two smoked for a few moments in silence.

"What kind of a job do you want?" Conward asked at length.

"Any kind that pays a wage," said Dave. "If I don't like it I'll chuck it as soon as I can afford to be particular, but just now I've got to get a grub-stake."

"I know the fellow that runs an employment agency down here," Conward answered. "Let's go down. Perhaps I can put you in right."

Conward spoke to the manager of the employment agency and introduced Dave.

"Nothing very choice on tap to-day," said the employment man. "You can handle horses, I suppose?"

"I guess I can," said Dave.

"Sore."

"I can place you delivering coal. Thirty dollars a month, and you board with the boss."

"I'll take it," said Dave.

The boss proved to be one Thomas Metford. He owned half a dozen teams, and was engaged in the cartage business, specializing on coal. He was a man of big frame, big head, and a vocabulary appropriate to the purpose to which he applied it. Among his other possessions were a wife, numerous children, and a house and barn, in which he boarded his beasts of burden, including in the term his horses, his men, and his wife, in the order of their valuation. The children were a by-product, valuable until such time as they also would be able to work.

No Real Distress in Alberta

Calgary. — Exhaustive investigations have been conducted by the provincial government into the conditions of the farmers in the drought-stricken districts in the southern end of this province, with the result that it has been shown that there is no real distress arising from crop failures, and that the government will not be required to furnish very much assistance to families. However, it will be necessary to provide feed in many cases.

"Waiter, there's a fly in this ice cream!"

"Serves him right, sir. Hope he freezes to death. He was in another gentleman's soup yesterday and I'll be downright glad to get rid of him."

Cuba Terrified By Voodoo Worshippers

Cannibalistic Practice Resulted in Death of Three Children

Havana, Cuba.—With the recent sudden outbreak of cannibalistic practice by voodoo worshippers, which have resulted in the death of at least three innocent children and a half dozen of the Voodoos, the latter by lynch law for the first time in this country's history, fathers and mothers are living in constant fear that their little ones may be spirited away by the superstitious negroes to be offered up in sacrifice to Changó, the god of the Brujos, as they are called in the Castilian language.

The Voodoos are divided into various sects, each with its separate god. The latter include Babagueye, god of sickness; Elecua, god of injury; Olorun, god of misery, and Changó, the terrible god, to whom human sacrifices are made.

Changó, according to the Voodoo belief, was the son of Olorun and Anaragua. He was slain by Elecua, the god of injury, and ascended into Heaven from a Ceiba, or god tree, in the month of May. It is in the month of May, therefore, that the Brujos observe their holy week, when Changó is expected to make a week's visit to the earth, descending by the Ceiba, has sacred tree, always on Monday.

The followers of Elecua do not directly offer human sacrifice, although their healers sacrifice the lives of some patient by giving them poisonous concoctions, supposedly a mysterious cure for some ailment, in order to restore to health some other patient. Elecua, being the god of injury, his followers believe that good can come to one person only through injury to another.

Voodooism is not practiced by the negroes alone. Many white persons also are said secretly to take part in their religious meetings, and accusations have been heard in various quarters of the difficulties encountered by officers seeking to break up their temples because of the obstacles placed in their way by persons of influence.

An active campaign by the authorities in Havana and other parts of the island have resulted in the capture of numerous Brujos and the seizure of many curious and weird objects used by them.

Taxation System To Revive France

Everyone Must Pay According to His Means

Paris.—France now must found the "republic of victory," Captain Andre Tardieu declared in a speech on the occasion of the transfer of the ashes of Deputy Abel Ferry, who was killed in action during the war.

"The tremendous French effort by which our dead have breathed will begin with a sustained effort of material reconstruction of the whole of France."

"The victory equipment must be created at once; our railways must be electrified and loans for national equipment must be floated."

"Everyone must in justice pay according to his means. In order to place this fiscal system of justice on a sound basis, two principles must be kept in view — to tax the small fortunes fairly and to tax the big ones progressively. When the big ones shall pay, as they do in America, sixty and seventy per cent, then the small ones will pay more willingly, and if the money comes the rest will be simplified."

Lucky for William

It is lucky for William Hohenzollern that his trial is to take place on English soil—not at all because the English will be more sympathetic with him than another nation might be, but because there is a traditional fairness and impartiality about English justice which no other country, not even our own, has been able to surpass. The object of the French and Italian courts is to obtain a conviction; the aim of an English court is to administer justice. Our own practice is marred by far too much opportunity for delay, by devices of technicality that cheat justice of her due.—New York Times.

Sometimes a man remains in the bachelor class because he is shy either of coin or courage.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make This Beauty Lotion Cheaply for Your Face, Neck, Arms and Hands

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

Finding Ways To Avoid Peace Terms

Significance of Militarizing Police in Germany is Great

Coblenz. — The militarization of German police allegedly contrary to the terms of the treaty of peace, has already been begun, according to information reaching authorities here. In the city of Cassel, the police were recently completely organized on military lines by the Prussian government. It is said, and are now equipped with steel helmets and rifles and follow the routine of a military company in their barracks. Of the 300 state police in office in Cassel, 100 have elected to be transferred to the new organization, and the remainder have been given places in the civil service.

The ultimate size of the new militarized police organization has not been announced. Those studying the demobilization and reorganization of the German army say that the significance of militarizing police in Germany is great.

American officers have records of an announcement that the Prussian state government, quite apart from the national government, was to organize a "schutzmannschaft" or state police force throughout Prussia, which would be virtually military units in garrisons with full infantry equipment, but would be under control of the minister of the interior and used only for the repression of internal disorders. These troops, according to the plan, were to be quite apart and in excess of the army permitted Germany under the terms of the peace treaty.

A semi-official announcement, however, states that it is appreciated that these troops are not permitted under the terms of the peace treaty, but the hope is expressed that the allies will be "reasonable" and permit their organization. The Cassel incident, it is contended by American officers, occurred long after the treaty was signed, but before the allied and inter-allied commission on military control of Germany had begun to function, shows the Prussian government is proceeding to organize a military force, trusting that the allies will not take any action against it.

London's First Telephone Line

With telephones in such common use today, it seems hard to realize that a little more than 40 years ago a number of prominent business men in London held a meeting to decide whether or not they should venture to invest some capital in the construction of telephone lines. They were of opinion that the telephone could not be of any great commercial value, but might be used as a means of transmitting the late speeches made in the House of Commons to newspaper offices. As a matter of fact, the first public telephone line established in London connected the House of Commons with the Times office and was used for the purpose just mentioned.

Do You Know These Men?

Last week a man stepped up to us and said he would pay us every cent he owed us if he lived till Saturday night. We presume the man died. Another said he would pay us in a day or two as sure as we were born. Query: Did the man lie or were we never born? Another man said he would settle as sure as shooting. We presume that shooting is very uncertain. Another man said he hoped to go to the devil if he did not pay us within three days. Haven't seen him since. Quite a number said they would see us tomorrow. They must have been stricken blind. One man told us six months ago that he would pay as soon as he got some money. We believe he was honest, nobody ever knew him to have any.

Tax Rate Reaches Century Mark

Ratepayers of the town and school district will be pleasantly (?) surprised to know that at an adjourned meeting of the council on Monday night a tax rate of 100 mills was struck. Considering conditions that have existed and still persist it is not to be wondered at.

The C. & E. Townsite Company have not paid their last years' taxes which amount to over $3,000 and the extra expenditure of $902 for the influenza epidemic are largely the cause of the high rate.

The tax rate is made up as follows: General rate 45 mills; debenture rate 14 mills; school rate 40 mills; supplementary revenue tax 1 mill.

The sum of $13,354.57 is wanted for general purposes and $10,427.60 for school purposes. The business tax, it is estimated, will raise $1,600 of this amount.

Profits on Wheat Go to the Farmers

Government Pays $2.15, Sells Grain, and Proceeds Are Pooled

FAIREST METHOD IS ADOPTED BY CANADA

Advance Given Does Not Constitute a Fixed Price

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 22nd—Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior, addressed a large gathering of farmers at Portage la Prairie last evening on the subject of the fixed price of wheat.

The Government, he stated, would have been glad to leave the matter alone, but it soon saw that it had to do something or the wheat would not move out of the country. The banks refused to finance the crop unless the Government got behind it, and the railways made it clear that unless the Government saw that the wheat was bought they would not move it.

Fairest Method Chosen

Three methods of handling were then discussed by the government. The first was that the government buy at a fixed price and take chances of the loss or gain; the second that a minimum price be fixed by law and allow trading above that price only. This was very seriously considered. The third alternative was the step which the government has taken. By the first method there might have been loss or gain for the government. The government had a right to look for neither. If the second alternative had been adopted the banks would have only paid up to the fixed price. Under the plan adopted the government will pay $2.15 per bushel for the wheat, sell it to the best advantage, pool the proceeds and pay the producer his proportional share of the profits.

Mr. Meighen wished it to be understood that the government had not set the price on wheat but had simply set the price which will be advanced by the government. One of the reasons why this was done was that the United States price would have a tendency to put the Canadian price up and as the United States crop was handled by the government of that country it might keep the Canadian price up so that it could dispose of its own crop and then let the Canadian price fall. Such a thing might be done.

Profit to Producer

Under the present arrangement the profit goes to the producer and not the speculator, and a farmer is able to get on with his work instead of rushing about to sell his wheat, said the minister.

Answering a question, Mr. Meighen said that he could not see that the British government is in a position to say what it shall pay for the wheat. He thought the price of $1.80 mentioned in recent news dispatches is the price of British millers, the British government absorbing any loss in the turnover in the interests of the laboring classes. Asked about the price of flour, Mr. Meighen said that the grain purchasing board has power to determine what the Canadian miller shall pay and to decide what profits he shall make. The Minister of the Interior left for Regina today.

By doing nothing men learn to do evil.

Royal Yeast has been the standard yeast in Canada for over 50 years, and it is a well known fact that bread made with Royal Yeast possesses a greater amount of nourishment than that made with any other.

Canada's Present Task

With the Peace Treaty formally approved by the parliaments of Great Britain and Germany, and in process of ratification in other countries; with Canada's parliament about to meet to signify its approval of the Treaty and with the Canadian army officially declared demobilized, the people of this Dominion are called upon to set themselves sternly to the task of fully restoring their country to a peace basis. In doing so they are confronted with many problems and burdens which are left to them as a legacy of the Great War, and these problems must be faced and solved and these burdens carried under entirely new social and industrial conditions which have been born in the minds and spirits of men during the period of the great upheaval through which we have passed.

Great as were the problems connected with the vigorous and successful prosecution of the war, they pale into insignificance when contrasted with the multitude of problems which peace, under these new world conditions, force upon us. The lofty patriotism and spirit of self-sacrifice which animated the people of Canada during the war must continue with them in these even more difficult days of peace if Canada is not to lose all that she so valiantly defended on the battlefields of Europe.

It was comparatively easy to save for Canada, sacrifice for Canada, serve Canada in the dark days of war; it is going to be infinitely harder to do so now that the incentive to victory is removed. But it is just as vitally necessary to our national welfare and future now as then,—even more necessary.

With a national debt of $2,000,000,000 upon which to pay interest and gradually liquidate, with millions required annually for pensions, with other great national obligations to carry, all the expenses of the public services, to be met, and provision made for great national undertakings required in the development for use of our natural resources, the eight million people of Canada have a task to perform which calls for the best in every man and woman, and each man and each woman must do his and her share if Canada is to succeed and prosper.

In a few weeks the people of Canada will be asked to subscribe to another large domestic loan, a loan which is necessary to pay off the remainder of the Dominion's war bills and to enable the national government to carry on the business of the country in these still unsettled times. It will probably be the last of these war loans, because Canada cannot go on borrowing indefinitely. The time is fast approaching when, not by way of loans to the Government, but in the payment of taxes the people of Canada will have to meet all national expenses, as well as provide a certain amount annually wherewith to reduce the national debt.

Canadians must face that necessity, and it is well that they should begin to prepare for it now. Canada as a nation can only meet its obligations to its own people and to the world by becoming a nation of producers in a larger way than ever before attempted. The natural resources of this country, vast and rich as they are known to be, but as yet largely undeveloped, must be developed for use. By their development alone can the necessary wealth be produced which will enable Canada to "carry on" successfully and prosper.

It is incumbent, therefore, on all Canadians to set themselves seriously to the task of ascertaining where and how they can best employ their abilities and energies in the work of production. On the farm, in the mine and forest, in the fisheries and in the factory, Canadians must display industry and energy. Taxes they must pay, heavier than in the past, and unless they produce something which will add to their own and the nation's wealth they will be in no position to pay. Canadian boys paid for Canada's independence and well-being with their life's blood during the past five years; all other Canadians must pay for Canada's honor, well-being and future prosperity and greatness by the full use of brain and brawn in the years of peace we are now to enjoy.

As the Montreal Star said in a recent editorial on "The Need of Canada," Canadians must go forward with a new, a better, a larger outlook. "Surely," says The Star, "with the immense legacy of debt that the war has bequeathed to us we would be wise to put away childish things, forget old quarrels which belong to the political nursery and face with courage and dignity the things that make for our peace, our strength and our security. There is no solution in the creed of destruction and no hope for men or nations save in industry, sanity, confidence and co-operation. Canada needs People, Production and Development. If we would concentrate upon these vital problems a multitude of lesser problems would settle themselves and we would begin to prove ourselves worthy of the great inheritance we possess. There was resource and dignity in Canada when we achieved Confederation. So, too, when we set all our energies to the Great War. A world in anguish and travail reveals too clearly that like unity, courage and devotion to vital things are needed to hold the civilization that we thought was saved on the red fields of Europe. Let us not relapse into a state of tribal warfare and spend ourselves in the petty partisan quarrels and ignoble controversies which fill too many pages of the political history of Canada. I had fainted unless I had believed in the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living."

SUMMER COMPLAINT IS A SERIOUS BOWEL TROUBLE

Very few people escape an attack of Summer Complaint. It may be slight, or it may be severe, but nearly every-one is liable to it.

You can't tell, when it seizes on you, how it may end.

Allow the profuse diarrhoea, the vomiting and purging to continue for a day or two and you will become weak and prostrated.

Just as soon as the bowels become loosened up, get a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and check these unnatural movements, and thus prevent the system from becoming weakened.

Mrs. L. J. Altem, wife of the well known wholesale and retail Fish Dealer, 44 Hill St., Amherst, N.S., writes:—"I have four children, the oldest being eight years old. Every summer they were troubled with Summer Complaint. Doctors' prescriptions did not seem to help them any. One day a friend asked me to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I at once got a bottle, and to my surprise and wonder, I soon saw a change in them. I now keep a bottle of it in the house all the time, and will recommend it to any mother."

"Dr. Fowler's" is 35c. a bottle. Get the original which has been put up for the past 74 years by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

GUARD BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SUMMER

The summer months are the most dangerous to children. The complaints of that season, which are cholera infantum, colic, diarrhoea and dysentery, come on so quickly that often a little one is beyond aid before the mother realizes he is ill. The mother must be on her guard to prevent these troubles, or if they do come on suddenly to cure them. No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during hot weather as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the stomach and bowels and are absolutely safe. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Money For Everybody

New Labor Programme Has Unique Scheme

London.—The latest thing in the labor programme of social reform is provision for a minimum income for every man, woman and child.

Under the scheme, which is fathered by Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor party, and G. A. H. Cole, attached to the research department, twenty per cent. of all incomes would be nationalized at the source and paid in a pool which would be devoted solely to the provision of a permanent weekly income of $2.25 a week to everybody. In this way, the sponsors of the plan say, it is hoped not merely to free the country from the future payment of old-age pensions, but of most, if not all, of the national and private agencies for the distribution of relief.

For Benefit Of Farmers

Merchants' Bank Establishes Rural Service Department in Western Provinces

As an evidence of the forward movement being taken by the banks in lending assistance to the farmers may be cited the fact that the Merchants' Bank of Canada has recently established a Rural Service Department for the western provinces. One of the efforts of this department will be to assist specifically in alleviating conditions due to the feed shortage.

It is now announced that Mr. James L. Clarke, formerly manager of the bank's branches at Sedgewick, Alta, Oak Lake, Man., and Grenfell, Sask., has been appointed manager for the western provinces with headquarters at Regina.

Mr. Clarke is well qualified for his new position, having had extended experience both as a banker and farmer. For many years he conducted the Lydale Stock Farm at Sedgewick, where he acquired practical knowledge of mixed farming. Mr. Clarke will now devote his time and energies to the study of western conditions, and more particularly to problems vital to the farmer and rancher. Farmers and stockmen may feel free to consult with Mr. Clarke either by letter or by a personal interview. His office is located at 1825 Searth Street, Regina.

Horses Versus Elephant

Tests made to determine the respective pulling power of horses, men and elephants showed that two horses weighing 1,600 pounds each, together pulled 3,750 pounds, or 350 pounds more than their combined weight. One elephant weighing 12,000 pounds pulled 8,750 pounds, or 3,250 pounds less than its weight. Fifty men, aggregating 7,500 pounds, pulled 8,750 pounds, or just as much as the single elephant, but, like the horses, they pulled more than their own weight. One hundred men pulled twelve thousand pounds.

It Works! Try It

Tells how to loosen a sore, tender corn so it lifts out without pain.

Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy dispensing freezone, the ether discovery of a Cincinnati man, which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers.

Ask at any pharmacy for a quarter ounce of freezone, which will cost very little, but is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus.

You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn and instantly the soreness is relieved, and soon the corn is so shrivelled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the adjoining tissue.

This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

THE MAN WHO WINS

Is Always Full of Life and Energy — Failures Are Weak and Bloodless.

Some men seem to have all the luck. If there are any good things going these men seem to get them. They make other people do their will — they are leaders. If they are business men they are successful; if they are workmen they get the foreman's job. They have the power of influencing people.

The same thing is true of women. Some have the charm that makes men seek them out; others are always neglected. But this is not luck. It is due to a personal gift — vitality. Men and women of this sort are never weak, puny invalids. They may not be big, but they are full of life and energy. The whole thing is a matter of good blood, good nerves and good health. Everyone would wish to be like this and the qualities that make for vitality and energy are purely a matter of health. By building up the blood and nerves, sleeplessness, want of energy, weakness of the back, stooping shoulders, headaches and the ineffectual sort of presence which really comes from weakness can all be got rid of. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made many weak, tired men vigorous and healthy, and many pale, dejected girls and women plump, rosy and attractive, by improving their blood and toning up their nerves. If you are weak, ailing, low-spirited or unhealthy, begin to cure yourself today by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Imperial Oil Company Make Another Attempt in Alberta

Lethbridge, Alta. — Announcement was made here by Charles E. Taylor, chief geologist for the Imperial Oil company in Alberta, that as a result of a geological survey made by 22 crews who have been working the foothills section of Alberta, all spring and summer, the company will start drilling southwest of Lethbridge as soon as a rig can be put in the ground. The site of the drilling operations already has been chosen.

The company is determined to make a final test of Alberta for oil, and their campaign plans for the drilling a series of test holes in the first anticline east of the mountains all the way from the international boundary to the McKenzie River basin.

No Protectorate Over Persia

Is Contemplated Between Great Britain and That Country

London. — Nothing in the nature of a protectorate over Persia is contemplated by the agreement between Great Britain and that country, Cecil B. Harmsworth, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, told the Commons.

"The policy of His Majesty's government," Mr. Harmsworth said, "is to assist Persia to re-establish herself on a sound basis."

"There is not the slightest foundation for a suspicion that the government proposed or that the Persian government would have considered the creation anything in the nature of a protectorate."

"The Persian government turned to Great Britain as her most powerful friendly neighbor and this government would have departed from its traditional policy of warm interest in the Persian government had it declined to respond to her appeal."

Are Old Folks Good Spellers

Schools of Years Ago Were More Efficient Than the Schools of Today

They had an old-fashioned spelling bee at the New York Chatauqua the other day, and the casualties were so heavy that the list had to be given out in instalments. Among the victims were professors and teachers, ministers, lawyers and doctors.

The younger men and women gradually dropped out, and the last ten belonged to a previous age in American education. The very last two were white-haired women, old enough to be grandmothers of some of the contestants.

Some will say this shows that the schools of years ago were more efficient than the schools of today, or at any rate taught spelling more efficiently. But is it not possible that many old people are good spellers simply because they are old? Nearly all of us improve as spellers as we grow older.

Honor For General Currie

Is Made Full General, Inspector-General for Canada, and Military Councillor to Government

Ottawa. — At a dinner given in Sir Arthur Currie's honor at the Country Club, Major-Gen. S. C. Mewburn, Minister of Militia, announced that the corps commander had been elevated to the rank of full general for the whole of Canada, and made military councillor, a position that means he will be chief military advisor to the Minister of Militia.

These promotions have been approved by the cabinet council, and merely have to be finally ratified by the governor-general in council, announced General Mewburn, who said that they were a slight expression of the appreciation of the services rendered by General Currie to Canada and the British Empire. This means that the commander of the Canadian corps has the distinction of being the first military officer in Canada and the only one at the present time to hold the full rank of general.

MR. LESLIE GROSSMITH

BEGONE DULL CARE LAUGH EXTRACTOR COMING

Mr. Leslie Grossmith, one of the most successful entertainers to tour Western Canada is to appear at Didsbury opera house, Wednesday, Sept. 9th.

Those fortunate enough to have heard Mr. Grossmith will not hesitate to be present and listen to a change of program. Those who have not had the pleasure of hearing him must see they do not miss this opportunity or the loss will be regrettable.

Mr. Grossmith is not only a musician of the highest attainments whose talent the world of art has acknowledged with honors, but he enjoys the distinction of being known as the "Laugh Extractor" and will draw from his audience more laughs than a whole company of comedians could do. In addition to his varied offerings of sketches, monologues, jokes, funny stories, dramatic readings, humorous songs, character impersonations, and wonderful piano solos, Mr. Grossmith will be supported by the Versity Trio of Musicians. This is a triangle team of brilliant youths who will delight their hearers with violin solos of a popular and attractive nature, cello solos of melody—such as can only be given on that wonderful instrument and carefully manipulated piano accompaniments. If this were all it would be more than enough but there is to be a dance for the pleasure of the young people attending the concert. The music for the dance will be provided by a special orchestra who promise something better and different to the usual jazz. Those who fail to attend this genuine offering are going to miss "the one great treat" likely to be presented this season. The event will be under special local auspices which will be announced later.

A Marching Song.

Many good people suppose that when soldiers go to battle they sing "Home, Sweet Home," or "Auld Lang Syne," or "Nearer my God to Thee," or something of that kind. Not at all. A Los Angeles man who was at the front, gives this first verse and chorus of a popular marching song:

Mary ate some oysters,
And Mary ate some ham,
Mary ate some marmalade,
And then she ate some jam.
Mary ate some johnny-cake,
And then she drank some beer,
And Mary wondered what it was
That made her feel so queer.

'R-up came the oysters,
'R-up came the ham,
'R-up came the marmalade,
And 'r-up came the jam;
And 'r-up came the johnny-cake,
And 'r-up came the beer;
And Mary dear, knew what it was
That made her feel so queer.

Shall ignorance, shall pride, shall arrogance, shall bigotry, dictate our habits or bias our minds?

How to Get Free Rates on Hay and Stock

For those who have not yet seen the regulations relating to the movement of hay, live stock and haying outfits free, the following information is given.

Application forms may be secured from the railway offices, from the government labour offices in Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat or from the Department of Agriculture at Edmonton. These forms must be filled up and sent to the department and certificates will be sent back the same day as the applications are received. They should be addressed to Mr. J. D. Smith, Seed Branch, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

The conditions are more limited in some respects than they were last year. Free freight on stock hay or haying outfits will not be given to those who have more than one hundred head of cattle or horses or three hundred head of sheep and only two cars of stock can be shipped north free and seven cars of hay south.

The dry area is defined as being south of a line from Lloydminster to Chipman, from Chipman to Tofield, from Tofield to Camrose and from Camrose to Wetaskwin and continuing west. The rates apply only within the province except that free freight will be given for hay brought from Manitoba or Saskatchewan to the dry area.

The volume of feed in Central and Northern Alberta is not as large as it was last year. There will probably be a hundred thousand tons secured this year but there was a good deal more than this shipped last year. There is still available a good deal of pasture about which information can be secured by writing the department.

RUGBY LAWN SOCIAL

The Lawn Social given by the Rugby Women's Institute at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young on the evening of Aug. 20th, proved quite a success. A fairly large crowd were in attendance, having driven from all parts of the country. The first part of the evening was spent in games, which brought to the returned boys present, painful memories of the days of P.T. This was followed by a concert in which the following local talent participated:

Song Miss Ruby
"A. Robertson, Jr.
Short address Rev. H. Brooke
Song Miss Worthington
"Miss Chambers
Recitation Mr. Phillipson
Comic Song Mr. Farrington
Address Mr. J. T. Worthington

The young people tried to finish with a dance on the lawn, but this did not prove a success. Nevertheless, we can safely say that everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

The person that sends money outside his own province (if the goods can be purchased within) is doing a wrong to his country.

THINK of the time and trouble you can save with this dependable range.

No black-leading. The cooking-top is burnished brighter than steel. Grates—the modern duplex type—clean the ashes out at a single turn. Oven walls nicked steel—easily cleaned.

Baking becomes a real pleasure when you have this fine range to work with. Call and see the Kootenay.

OBITUARY

Elizabeth Meek, after seventy years and eleven months of life passed away Aug. 23rd, 1919, at the home of her son, Mr. A. Meek, Didsbury, Alberta. Her birth place was Germany, from which she emigrated to Pennsylvania in 1873. Here she met Elias Meek to whom she was married and in a few years they moved to Ontario, and in 1900 to Alberta. Mrs. Meek leaves to mourn her departure two sons and one daughter besides many other friends and relations. Mrs. Meek was a devout christian from early years, which was shown in her conversations and expressed in her ministries. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints.

ROSEBUD ITEMS

The farmers are busy these days in the hay fields; they have also started harvesting.

Mrs. Walter Scheidt's sister, Miss Snide, who has been visiting her for the last two months, left for her home in Dakota on Monday.

Grandma Meek, Mr. A. Meek's mother, who has been ill for the past two days, passed quietly away Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The family has the sincere sympathy of all who knew her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Wilson and their son Harrison, visited the Deadrick home on Sunday.

Mr. Stevens and Mr. Ben Sherick's boys have returned from overseas this past week.

Mrs. Scheidt and Miss Snide were afternoon visitors at the Burgess home on Tuesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver were Sunday visitors at the Sam Burgess home.

Bonnycastle Dale, the well-known Canadian naturalist, is the author of the leading article in "Rod and Gun in Canada" for August, it is entitled "Salmon Fishing at Campbell River." The wondrous beauty of the Campbell River Falls is to be seen in the page photo-engraving that accompanies the article. Other articles and stories of note are: "Tahar the Turtle," by A. O. Philipp; "Rideau and Trent Canals" by L. Sherwood; "The Beverley and Newboro' Lakes," by Tyeth Bounsall, and "The Summer Call to the Northland," by Walter Thornton. An illustrated account of the 1918 Tournament of the N. S. Guides also appears in this splendid issue, along with the usual high grade Guns and Ammunition, Fishing, Kennel and Conservation Departments. Canada's premier outing monthly is published by W. J. Why Britain Sets Low Wheat Price

Winnipeg.—In an interview on the price of $1.80 set by Great Britain for Canadian wheat, W. Sanford Evans, who represented the millers at recent conferences at Ottawa, said: "The situation is quite simple. This price of $1.80, mentioned in the cable, has, unquestionably, to my mind, nothing to do with the price at which the British Government will buy wheat, but the price at which it will resell, in conformity with its policy to ensure the ninepenny loaf. "Great Britain absorbs the difference between the purchase price and the price necessary to allow for the turning out of the four-pound loaf for ninepence. Canadian wheat, grading No. 1 northern, cannot be made into bread for ninepence a loaf. "Last year it cost Great Britain $235,000,000, the difference between the price it had paid for wheat and the price at which it had to be sold to allow for the ninepenny loaf. It had to charge prices for wheat which were less than the purchase price.

"This $1.80 mentioned in the cable is the resale price. The cable, in my judgment, has nothing to do with the purchase price. The British government will purchase at whatever price it can get the wheat, and then sell at a resale price of $1.80 in England.

"It has been doing it before. It has in the past spread the difference over wheat and flour. Now the cut is all placed on the wheat. The government decided to subsidize the loaf and placed it all on the wheat, which will represent the ninepenny loaf."

Bolsheviki Cut Off From Base

London.—Military authorities here point out that the occupation by General Denikine of the town of Cherkasy, on the Dnieper river, below Kiev, cuts the last remaining line of communication of the Bolshevik with Odessa.

The evacuation of Cherkasy has not yet been confirmed, but it is regarded here as probable that the Bolsheviks have left it.

Harvesters Create Disturbances

Pillage Town, Fire Depot and Stone Passenger Trains en Route

Riviere du Loup, Que.—A trainload of young men, numbering between 800 and 900, belonging to different parts of the district, and who were leaving for the West to work on the farms during the harvest, created a serious disturbance on the train, also robbing and pillaging in this town, one shop being relieved of $300. At St. Andre de Kamouraska they set fire to the station, which was got under control before serious damage occurred. Other offences were committed at other places along the road, among them being the stoning of passenger trains. Detectives were finally placed aboard and the train proceeded to its destination, no arrests being made.

"Away With Erzberger"

Berlin.—Under the slogan "Away with Erzberger," the National Liberals staged a noisy meeting of protest, in which the speakers subjected the Minister of Finance to a vicious verbal grilling. Erzberger's activities from the time he conducted the armistice negotiations down to the present enactment of radical measures of taxation were made the subject of attacks from the floor rostrum. "Traitor," "Scoundrel," "Camouflaged Corruptionist," and similar epithets were heard. Some of the speakers demanded that Erzberger be strung up on the nearest lamp post.

At the meeting a resolution was adopted demanding Erzberger's retirement.

Strike in Miramichi Mills

Newcastle, N.B.—Practically every mill on the Miramichi has been tied up by a strike among the workers. Men employed loading the steamers have struck for a nine-hour day and 65 cents per hour.

Increased Wages For Telegraph Operators

Reduction in Working Time and an Advance of $10 and $12 Are Granted By Board

Montreal.—Substantial increases in wages are accorded the operators of the C.P.R. telegraphs by an award handed down by the Canadian railway war board, adjustment number one. An increase of $10 a month is given to Morse operators, "all outside points," and $12 a month to the percentage groups of the percentage offices. Included in the latter are Montreal, Ottawa, Winnipeg, Moose Jaw, Calgary and Vancouver.

The wages in these three percentage groups will now be $133.25, $129.00 and $122, with a minimum over the entire system of $100 a month, with the exception of city branch offices (send only) where the minimum will be $75 a month, and also at one or two specified points.

An eight-hour day will be worked in all outside large centre offices, a reduction of one hour. The increase is to date back to June 1, and in future the clerks are to be included in the wage schedule.

In the present arrangement, however, the amount of wages of the clerks was not decided, but will be dealt with on September 16.

Austrians And Their Treaty

Are Wanting to Take it Back to Vienna

Paris.—The Austrian delegation told the supreme council that it would be necessary for them to take the complete text of the treaty to Vienna and to submit it to the assembly for approval before he delegates can sign it.

This suggestion brought expressions of surprise from members of the council, as it had been thought the Austrian delegation had full powers. The council is urging the Austrians to make some arrangements to sign the treaty without taking it to Vienna.

The signing of the treaty, as a result of this unexpected development, it was said, may be postponed until well into September.

Citizens Would Prosecute Prince

Berlin.—At a meeting of the citizens of Teltow, a suburb of Berlin, there was a discussion of the conduct of Prince Friedrich Leopold, cousin of former Emperor William, who, unlike Count Hohenlohn, remained there instead of leaving the country. It was alleged that he had engaged in illicit trading on a large scale and had hoarded large quantities of food. Local authorities recently searched his castle, confiscating great supplies of food, which were distributed among hospitals, but when they attempted to bring action against the prince they were told from authoritative quarters that he was immune, being a member of the royal family.

Serious Fires in Northern Idaho

Missoula, Mont.—The general fire situation in forestry district number one, Montana and Northern Idaho, has never in the history of the west been so serious as it is today, according to forestry officials. New fires are breaking out, old blazes are entirely out of control, and it is reported incendiaries in the woods not only have set fires in isolated spots, but have in several instances severed connections between the fire fighting crews and the outside world, with serious results.

Supply the Home Market First

Sydney, N.S.—Instructions have been issued to the refiners by the Canadian trade commission that all local demands for sugar must be looked after before this article is exported. Such was the gist of a telegram received by F. C. Kimber, secretary of the Sydney board of trade, in reply to a wire sent to the government.

Consumers to Fight Profiteers

Paris.—Citizens and housewives of the Montmartre district have formed the "consumers' league of France" to combat the high cost of foodstuffs. It is the intention of the founders to enlarge the league into the national buyers' federation, with members throughout the country.

U. S. Government Brings Down Prices

Fixed Price Of Wheat

If World Market Price Realizes More, Producer to Get the Benefit

Ottawa.—Telegrams and communications received by the government, as well as comments made by brokers and others interested in the wheat trade, indicate that the government's action in fixing an initial price for wheat to be paid to the farmers by the wheat control board is still misunderstood in many quarters. It is assumed by many apparently that the initial price of $2.15 announced by the government is a fixed price and that no matter what the price of wheat may be the farmers will not receive more than that figure. On behalf of the government it was pointed out to a representative of the Canadian Press, Limited, that in the case of the Canadian farmer, he gets what the market of the world will give him. If the price of wheat should go to $2.30, $2.40 or $2.50, the farmer will get the benefit.

On the other hand, in the United States, where a price has been definitely fixed, the farmer will simply get the fixed price.

The object of the government, it was further explained, was not to limit to any price or estimate the price that the farmer should obtain but rather to make sure that he should receive the highest possible safe initial payment upon the crop. The government through the Canadian wheat board undertakes to sell the surplus crop, not at a fixed price, but at the best world price available, and to turn back to the farmer free from all speculative and profiteering charges the balance of the price received for his grain over and above the initial payment of $2.15.

It was further pointed out that the United States price was fixed before he war was over, on the assumption that the world conflict would continue. Had that not been done it is not regarded as probable that the United States would have made a fixed price, but as it is, the United States farmer gets the fixed price and no more.

Why Shoes Are High

Boston, Mass.—Enquiry into the high cost of shoes by the Suffolk county grand jury developed that some shoe workers have been earning $120 a week. These instances were said to be few, but it was testified that many made $60 a week, while the average was about $40. Unskilled help, formerly paid at $12 to $15 a week, have profited most, last boys getting as much as $30 a week.

It was said that a pair of shoes sold by a manufacturer for $5.50 was displayed in a store four hundred yards from the factory marked at $12.

Inheritance Tax Bill Passed

Weimar, Germany.—The assembly has passed the inheritance tax bill. The members of the Right voted against the bill. They particularly opposed the paragraph inserted in committee, under which the tax on fortunes exceeding 150,000 marks is greatly increased and in some cases doubled.

Greeks Ask for Protection

London.—Saloniki representatives of 35,000 Greeks in the Ardkshan district of the Caucasus have telegraphed the peace conference requesting protection against Turkish soldier brigades, who, with Erzrum as a base, are holding massacres of the Greeks there, accompanied by much pillage.

Miners Talk of Five-Day Week

Sydney, N.S.—The five-day week, a demand for a 25 per cent. increase in wages and several other matters of prime importance to the coalfields, the miners and the province in general will be taken up at the big mining convention which is to meet in Sydney this week.

Italian Troops Enter Hungary

Paris.—Italian troops are on their way into Hungary, according to reports received here. No details of the movement were given.

Washington. — Attorney-General Palmer said there was evidence that the government campaign to reduce the cost of living already was bearing fruit. A prominent vegetable packer of Maryland wrote Mr. Palmer that prices in many lines were beginning to ease off, as it became evident the department of justice meant business in announcing that criminal prosecutions against hoarders and profiteers would be instituted where the laws were violated.

The attorney-general and Judge Ames, his assistant, drew distinctions which they said the public should recognize between hoarded food and stored food. The former is held out of the market in greater quantities than required for the owners' business for the purpose of forcing up the market.

The latter is surplus, being husbanded from the harvest to the lean season.

Reports to the attorney-general from state food administrators indicated that fair price boards rapidly were being set up in many states and were proceeding to get pledges from dealers to abide by the prices promulgated for the guidance of the public.

The department of justice announced that eleven cases had been brought under the Food Control act for seizure of food in Columbus, Ga., St. Louis, Detroit, Chattanooga and Kansas City.

Employment For Returned Men

There Should Be No Such Thing as the Soldier Problem

Ottawa.—The returned soldier problem, said Gen. Currie, during an address, had been brought to his notice since his return. He thought there was no such problem and urged the business men of Canada to give the men a chance on their return.

He thought that instead of the returned soldiers creating any problem that was being done by the men who stayed at home getting four or five times as much money as soldiers, and then became afraid their big money might fall off during the reconstruction period.

"Before the war," he said, Canada was able to absorb 500,000 immigrants yearly; surely we can absorb 500,000 returned men who are your own brothers. Before the war they were an asset to Canada, surely they are an asset on their return. Not a returned soldier should go unemployed."

Railways and Daylight Saving

Ottawa.—The action of the United States congress in killing daylight saving over the President's veto is taken here to mean the simultaneous death of the system in Canada. Whenever the United States sets back the clocks the Canadian railways will have to do likewise. The same argument that was used by them in adopting daylight saving last spring will apply to reverting to the old system at the same time as the Americans do it.

Commr. C. Sowton to Go to Sweden

Toronto.—Commissioner Charles Sowton, of the Salvation Army, who has been in charge of the Western Canada territory with headquarters at Winnipeg, has been selected by General Bramwell Booth to take charge of Salvation Army work in Sweden, according to an announcement made here by Col. John McMillan, chief secretary for the Toronto district.

Ask Intercession for Absentees

Quebec.—At a meeting of the national trades and labor council it was decided to ask His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to intercede to obtain a general amnesty for absentees under the Military Service act.

Helferich May Be Prosecuted

Berlin.—The Ministry of Justice has received instructions to examine the evidence obtained against the former vice-chancellor, Dr. Karl Helferich, with a view to prosecuting him.

No Waste Space

This attractive six-room house has no waste space and is at the same time an economical house to build for one who does not care to spend very much money in a house and at the same time have considerable room. It is intended that there be a vestibule for the front door extending out on to the veranda; this is not shown on this plan. The two front rooms can be made into one large room, which would extend across the whole front of the house, making the living room do for a dining room on occasion. Many families eat in the kitchen, ordinarily, so that this front room gives a chance to carry out many forms of decoration and arrangement which cannot be done in the usual living room. The upstairs has three bedrooms and bath, with ample closet room. This house has side entrance which can be changed to rear entrance if desired.

Keep The Place Up

There are times when anyone is apt to get discouraged.

Then again everything looks fine and prosperous.

Through all the ups and downs incident to farming or town life one thing is very necessary.

KEEP YOUR PLACE UP.

Allowing buildings to run down, fences and gates to become broken, etc., does not add to the selling value if you want sell and it indicates failure rather than prosperity.

It actually costs less to keep everything right up to date than to let it run down. Yearly repair bills on a well kept place are always less than on a place that is allowed to run down.

What Does Your Place Need To Put It In Good Condition Now?

If only repairs are necessary why not get the material now to do it with? — get a little extra and have it on hand.

Grain storage and machine storage should have particular attention this month.

We are equipped with plan service and material to serve you quickly, accurately and economically on any job, small or large.

Vice Pres. & Manager

AROUND THE TOWN

Dr. Duncan, dentist, has returned and will resume practice this week. 1c

Mr. W. Farrington has been enjoying a holiday at Gull Lake.

A Dance will be held at the opera house, Labor day, commencing at 9 p.m. $1.00 per couple. 1c

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Reed and family and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cuncannon returned from their holidays at Gull Lake on Monday.

Mrs. G. H. Liesemer, Mr. Herb Liesemer, Clint Reiber, Mrs. H. Reiber, Orpha and Arthur, motored to Forestburg and spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Reiber and Harold.

The parson met a little boy on Sunday carrying a fishing rod. He said: "Little boy, do you know where people go who fish on Sundays?" The boy replied: "Yes, sir, out to Fallen Timber creek."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams, of Great Falls, Montana, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGee last week, leaving for home on Monday last. Jack was formerly in the butcher business in Didsbury.

Mr. Doran, manager of the Royal bank, has been on a visit to Taber. We hear that he has been offered the management of the bank in that town. If he accepts Didsbury will be losing a very popular citizen and the bank customers a pleasant and competent official.

Mrs. G. Campbell, of Pasadena, Calif., was visiting with her brother, Mr. T. Thompson, of the Atlas Lumber Co., for a few days last week on her way home from England and Scotland. This is the first time in fourteen years that Mr. Thompson has seen his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bellamy who have been visiting with their son, and other friends at Westcott for some weeks left on Tuesday for an extended visit to friends in Saskatchewan and Manitoba before returning to their home at Salmon Arms, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Morrison's little two year old, daughter, Lorraine, was taken to the Calgary hospital on Friday last because of a severe attack of appendicitis. Their many friends in town and district will hope for her speedy recovery.

Monday next, September 1st, is Labor Day and a Dominion holiday. All stores and the banks will be closed on that day and the post office will only be open for a few moments after the arrival of trains.

W. Short, who runs the barber shop opposite the Rosebud Hotel, was taken suddenly ill with an attack of appendicitis on Monday and was taken to the Calgary hospital on Monday evening. It is to be hoped that he will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman have just returned from their holiday tour. Mr. Zimmerman says the finest crops of wheat he has ever seen since he has been in Alberta are around the Drumheller and Rockyford districts, where the yield is expected to be from 35 to 50 bushels to the acre.

You have all heard of lost articles being found in funny places. Some years ago my friend lost a very beautiful ring while yachting off the coast of Cornwall, Eng. Last Monday night I was eating some fish for supper that had been caught in Fallen Timber creek. I bit on something hard, what do you think it was? The ring. No, it was a fish-bone.

The kiddies are rejoicing over the extra week's holiday. Schools were to have opened on Monday last but as arrangements were not quite completed for the next term the Board decided not to open the schools until Tuesday next, September 2nd.

The teaching staff of the Didsbury High School and Public Schools for the coming school term will be as follows: High School—Miss Lantz (principal), Mr. Goldie Liesemer; Public Schools—Miss A. E. Kerr (principal), Miss Zetta Liesemer, Miss Crystal, Miss Campbell, Miss Enbank and Miss Eva Sexsmith.

The story is told that a woman was reading the matrimonial columns of a paper and remarked to her husband: "Here's a strange coincidence — a William Strange married to a Martha Strange." "Strange indeed," remarked her husband, but I expect the next news will be a little stranger."

The Didsbury ball club will go to Carstairs for a game with that team next Tuesday, Sept. 2nd. The game will be called at 6 p.m. sharp. On Wednesday, Sept. 10th, a game between Carstairs and Didsbury will be played on the home grounds, the proceeds of which will be donated to the local veterans' club.

Week-end fishermen at the Fallen Timber creek report splendid success. A party composed of Messrs. J. A. McGhee, Jack Adams and A. W. Axtell caught some splendid trout as well as a large number of grayling. Jack Adams caught a trout weighing two pounds and a half while McGhee and Axtell were equally successful in landing others not quite so big. Another party made up of Messrs. W. H. Brown, H. Paul, V. Shantz, Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Shantz also hiked for the tall timbers and were also very successful in catching the elusive grayling. Both parties were up to the big fishing holes. If you see fins sprouting on any of these people or their friends, do not be surprised, there's a reason.

The W.C.T.U. held a very successful lawn social, Wednesday afternoon, on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. H. Reiber. A large number were present. After a temperance song and prayer by Mrs. Clemens the Rev. A. Clemens made some very appropriate remarks on this occasion encouraging the union in this good work. A ladies' quartette was rendered entitled "Pure white ribbons." Mrs. Houlton, of Calgary addressed those present relating some of her experiences during her stay in different parts of B.C., also urging the W.C.T.U. to fight for the right. At this gathering Mrs. Houlton organized a W. C. T. U. for Westcott. The Neapolis ladies have joined with Didsbury W.C.T.U. After another temperance song a dainty lunch was served.
